Ronald Peters gift of Alexander Scott Carter Papers

Dates: 1662-[1950s]

Extant: 1 box (12 cm)

Biographical Note: Alexander Scott Carter (7 April 1881-1968) was an artist and architect active in Toronto from 1912 until the 1960s. He was born in Harrow, England, and attended the Bournemouth School of Art and later studied Architecture at the Royal Academy Schools from 1905-1908. He emigrated to Canada in late 1912, moving to Toronto. He specialized in architectural decoration and heraldic ornament. His work includes designing various war memorials, statues, bookplate, and arms for Toronto individuals and institutions, including the Heraldic designs that were used to decorate the main dining hall at Hart House, University of Toronto.

Scope and Content: This donation includes material relating to Carter's genealogical research into the various branches of his family, namely the Carter, Boggis, and Wincoll families. This includes notes, research, original documents, reproductions of heraldic ornaments, artwork, and wax seals.
