William George Browne Papers

William George Browne Papers, 2023

Dates: 1803-1809

Extent: 1 box (13 cm)

Biographical note: William George Browne (1768-1813) was an English travel writer. In 1799 he published "Travels in Africa, Egypt and Syria, from the years 1792 to 1798." His papers also formed the basis of 2 works by Robert Walpole (1781-1856); "Remarks written at Constantinople" (1802) and "Memoirs relating to European and Asiatic Turkey" (1820). He went on a second journey in 1800, this time to Anatolia, visiting places such as Greece and Sicily. His third and final journey took place in 1813 where he was murdered by robbers on route to Tehran.
