

Ms.
Coll.
451

Collignon, Albert, 1937-
Philosopher, Poet, Cook
Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library

Includes correspondence, Collignon family photographs, poems and drafts of poems, including the Martha's Clinic Letters series.

Albert Collignon was born in Treherne, Manitoba, in 1937, one of four children of parents Cicilia(Montreal) and Eugene(Luxembourg) Collignon. Of the four children, brother Gary Collignon, had two children, Tracie and Jamie. Collignon eventually moved to L'Orignal, Ontario, where he pursued his writing, publishing under Nongilloc Books.

Extent: 1 box (7 cm)

Gift of Albert Collignon, 1972-1987

Ms.
Coll.
451

Collignon, Albert, 1937-
Philosopher, Poet, Cook
Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library

Box 1 27 folders	Correspondence, drafts, photographs
Folder 1	Collignon family photographs: Eugene and Cicilia Collignon (parents) Gary and Tracie Collignon (brother and niece) Albert Collignon 3 black and white photographs 1 colour photograph
Folder 2	Correspondence Gift acknowledgements from libraries, 1983-1986
Folder 3	Correspondence Gift acknowledgements from libraries, some with empty envelopes
Folder 4	Correspondence Gift acknowledgements from libraries, some with empty envelopes
Folder 5	Correspondence From Maurice Podbrey, Centaur Theatre Company, March 23, 1984, TLS
Folder 6	Correspondence To University of Toronto Library February 4, 1986 ALS with photocopy of poem and envelope
Folder 7	Correspondence To University of Toronto Library April 18, 1985 TLS with envelope Includes 'The Clinic's Letter Eight'
Folder 8	Gift acknowledgement letters from libraries, 1985

Ms.
Coll.
451

Collignon, Albert, 1937-
Philosopher, Poet, Cook
Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library

Folder 9	Gift acknowledgement letters from libraries 1985
Folder 10	'The Clinic's Letter Eight' with ANS, April 25, 1985 to University of Toronto Library with envelope
Folder 11	Gift acknowledgement letters from libraries, 1985
Folder 12	Gift acknowledgement letters from libraries 1985
Folder 13	TLS to University of Toronto Library, September 20, 1984
Folder 14	TLS to University of Toronto Library, April 16, 1985, with 7 pages of holograph notes
Folder 15	Photocopy of untitled poem sent to University of Toronto Library
Folder 16	Christmas card from 'Pierre, Margaret et Justin Trudeau', print, December 20, 1972 Envelope with holograph note by Collignon
Folder 17	TLS, July 20, 1992 To University of Toronto Library with draft of 'Martha's Clinic, Letter 10', with envelope
Folder 18	Martha's Clinic, Letter 10, typescript draft with holograph notes and revisions
Folder 19	Martha's Clinic, Letter 10, printed and typescript draft with holograph revisions, 1987
Folder 20	Martha's Clinic, Letter 10, photocopies of draft pages, 1987
Folder 21	ALS with poem, 'As a Deterrent to the

Ms.
Coll.
451

Collignon, Albert, 1937-
Philosopher, Poet, Cook
Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library

	Young'. June 3, 1987 to University of Toronto Library, with envelope
Folder 22	TLS to University of Toronto Library, May 8, 1987, with envelope
Folder 23	ALS to University of Toronto Library, May 5, 1987, with envelope
Folder 24	Typescript, 'Poem for Letter Ten; May 1, 1987' with ANS and envelope
Folder 25	Typescript draft 'Letter Ten' with ANS, April 24, 1986, and envelope
Folder 26	ANS to University of Toronto, September 1, 1987, written on photocopy of letter to Manitoba Arts Council 1 colour photograph of Jamie Collignon(niece) and Lady(his dog) with envelope
Folder 27	Print advertisement for Martha's Clinic (novel) with AN