JUNE 2003 Accession

Collection of notes, correspondence, manuscripts, photographs, xerox copies of articles and letters, and books pertaining to Faulkner. They date from the 1960s for the biographical section of The Achievement of William Faulkner, with some later exchanges with people who had known Faulkner at first-hand. There are extensive correspondences between Prof. Millgate and other Faulkner scholars. There are working materials relating to Browning, Tennyson, and Henry James. Also, there are correspondence and other materials relating to the distinguished publisher's editor Catharine Carver. She assisted Prof. Millgate on Thomas Hardy: A Biography and several volumes of The Collected Letters of Thomas Hardy. Prof. Millgate wrote her obituary for the London Independent and the entry for her in the forthcoming New Dictionary of National Biography.
