

Manuscript
Collection
154

PILGRIM'S CLUB

(L. Hussey)

Papers of a group formed in 1902 in London, to work for Anglo-American co-operation. The collection contains minutes of the early meetings, scrapbooks of newsclippings about its work, correspondence, etc. about the funding and expenses incurred by the establishment of the Pilgrim's American Officers Club in London, and a published (privately printed) book on the work done by the Ministry of Information, Dept. of Hospitality to the American Forces. Some personal correspondence addressed to Sir H.E. Brittain, chairman of the Pilgrims (1902-1918) is also included.

Attached to this collection is a scrapbook of newsclippings on National Service for Women, and its director, Mrs. H.J. Tennant. 5 vols., 1 box. Shortlist.

- Box 1
1. Bound volume of the minutes of the Pilgrim's Committee, August 1902 - April 1909.
 2. Scrapbook of news clippings about the American Officers' Club in London.
 3. Unite & live; a record of entertainments for promoting the better understanding of the English speaking races. Written and printed for private circulation by the Dept. of Hospitality to the American Forces (Ministry of Information) Presentation copy to Sir Harry Brittain.
 4. American Officers' Club in London. Photo album.
 5. Sir Harry Brittain. Correspondence - IN 1906-19.
" - OUT 1916-17.
Millard Hunsiker. " - IN 1917-18.
Mrs. Welsh-Lee. " - IN 1918-19.
London. American Officers' Club. - Booklet
- Membership lists
- First guarantee fund
Correspondence 1917. - Fund for expenses
Correspondence 1918. - Photographs
Pilgrims' Club - Membership lists
- News clippings
- Suggestions for reorganization.
- Portraits
Speeches by Sir Harry Brittain (?)
Photographs of Pilgrims touring war plants and battlefields.
 6. Scrapbook of newsclippings re woman's role in World War I, The National Service for Women, and its director, Mrs. H. J. Tennant.