Russell, George William, 1867-1935
Papers, 1928-1933 (bulk 1930-1931).
1 box.

Irish poet, artist, journalist.

Copies of correspondence, and memorabilia relating to the lecture tours made by Russell to the United States in 1928 and 1930/31. A telegram and the copy of one letter are from Russell to James Pond who organized the tours. The rest of the letters are carbon copies of letters mainly from Pond to Russell and concern arrangements for specific lectures. The typescript outline for the 1928 tour with itinerary and fees is included along with printed announcements about specific lectures and mimeographed publicity about Russell.

Arrangement: chronological.

Purchase, 1991.

Associated material: Russell correspondence in DeLury Papers (Ms Coll 71).
