

WALLACE, William Stewart, 1884-1970. Librarian, author.

Articles on historical subject; biographies for his Dictionary of North American authors; personal correspondence; correspondence for the Royal Society of Canada, the Encyclopedia of Canada, and the Canadian Society for the Protection of Science and Learning. ca. 1920-194-. ~~70~~ boxes. Shortlist.

46

Physical storage: Located at Downsview Offsite Storage.

Box 1-20 A Dictionary of North American Authors; drafts of each entry arranged alphabetically.

21 Correspondence and notes re Wallace's several books. Typescripts and drafts of addresses, articles and lectures on varied subjects, ranging from Canadian history to libraries and librarianship and the history of the colleges of the University of Toronto.

22 Typescripts and drafts of:

- book reviews
- obituaries
- short stories
- addresses and articles on Canadian history and Canadian historical figures
- addresses and articles on libraries (mainly the University of Toronto library) and bibliography, including an examination on that subject for his class at the Library School.

Also includes a pamphlet by Lawrence J. Burpee: La Verendrye's 1738-39 journal; Sir Robert Falconer's Higher Education in Canada; and replies written to Wallace re a luncheon meeting with Andrew Keogh, Yale University Librarian, April 1930.

23 C.O.T.C. material and articles relative to military life in Canada in the 1940's. Typescripts and drafts of addresses and articles written in the 1940's on Canadian history and historical figures. The Fifth Column; a short story, typescripts and drafts, several versions. Typescripts and drafts of book reviews and articles on Canada in the war.

W.S. Wallace papers cont.

- Box 24. Correspondence relative to Wallace's research on the Leith, Dease, Hollowel, Grant and Fraser families (in connection with The North West Company, and the Frasers also in connection with Fraser's Highlanders) Also included are his notes, transcripts and photostats of documents. Correspondence with and statements from publishers, Agreements drawn up between Wallace and publishers.
- Box 25 Correspondence and notes re:
- A bibliography of early Ontario newspapers (Periodical Literature of Upper Canada?)
  - The Mackenzie and Cameron families
  - The North West Company
- Boxes 26-28 Correspondence re the Society for the Preservation of Science and Learning; arranged chronologically.
- Boxes 29-31 Correspondence and related papers re A Dictionary of North American Authors; arranged alphabetically by name of author.
- Boxes 32-35 Correspondence and related papers re the Royal Society, 1933-1946.
- Box 36 Correspondence and related papers re The Encyclopedia of Canada, 1935-38, new ed., 1945-47.
- Boxes 37-40 Private correspondence:
- Box 37 1928-1933
  - Box 38 1934-1943
  - Box 39 1944-1954
  - Box 40 1934-35, mainly dealing with his Book of Canada.
- Box 41 Photos: Toronto Golf Club, 1935.
Company 139 overseas battalion, Cobourg, May, 1916.
- Box 42 A & B Notes on North American authors.
- Item 43 Dictionary of North American Authors - page proofs.
- ms coll. 339 Boxes 1-9
ms coll 31
Boxes 44 and 45 W.S. Wallace's Bibliography of Ontario imprints, 1793-1900. 2 wooden drawers.
- Non-verified Ontario imprints
- See also MSS 5241. Northwest Company of Canada album of photos.