

JAFFARY, Stuart King, 1899-1964. Professor of social work.

Correspondence, articles, research notes on criminology, penal reform, sentencing, University of Toronto School of Social Work, etc. 193--1964. ~~12~~ boxes. Shortlist. Located at Downsview Offsite.

12 boxes

- Box 1 General Correspondence. (Subjects include penal reform, criminology, and personal affairs.) [Correspondence also in Boxes 2-10.]
Articles by Jaffary on: Canadian Prisons; Canadian Social Security; The British Social Services Profession; Overseas help to British social workers during the war.
Newspaper clippings (general).
- 2-3 Sentencing in Canada - papers relating to research for this book.
- 4 Corrections - Papers relating to a proposed history of Corrections.
- Correspondence with Canadian Corrections Association.
- Correspondence with Ontario Corrections Association.
- 5 School of Social Work
- classlists, faculty lists, pictures, statistics on graduate employment, correspondence and memoranda about setting up a course in criminology (including material about Grygier and the state of criminology in Canada), material on Cassidy.
- 6 School of Social Work - lecture notes
- 7 Training of Social workers
- papers discussing teaching of criminology and corrections in the School of Social Work, techniques of case work, interviewing research, suggestions for a course on delinquency. (See also Box 5.).
- 8 Canadian Association of Social workers ~~[See also box 63]~~
Ontario Association of Social workers ~~[See also box 62-63]~~
Ontario Welfare Council ~~[See also box 36]~~
United Appeal
Committee on Nuclear Disarmament (and allied subjects)
- 9 Rehabilitation
- half-way houses; House of Concord; Friendly project; Harold King Farm. ~~[See also boxes 22-24 and 80-81]~~
Penal Association of Canada
Criminal Law.
- 10 Student Christian Movement - papers, addresses, etc.
The Role of the Church in Social Problems. ~~[See also box 37]~~